

YOUR TRAINING COUNTS 2019/2020

REPORT IN NUMBERS

27.2%
reported working 60 hours or more a
week

Of those working more than 59 hours a week, 44.9%
had been involved in an adverse event

Of those working
less than 40 hours
a week,

87.8% reported a
quality of life that was good or better.

79.6%
of trainee
specialists reported
enjoying good
mental wellbeing

More than 8/10
trainee specialists felt physically safe in the hospital environment

32.8%
reported having experienced
bullying in their post

41.5%
of respondents who were bullied were also involved in an adverse event

67.3%
of those bullied did not tell anyone in authority

43.5%
reported experiencing undermining behaviour from a consultant or GP

86.6%

expressed the wish to either remain in Ireland and practise or return to Ireland following a period abroad

